Grace of God, of England,
Scotland, France, and Ireland,
King, Defender of the Faith,
&c. To all Christian People, to whom these Presents shall come, Greeting.

I. Whereas We are credibly Informed, That in many of Our Plantations, Colonies and Factories beyond the Seas, belonging to our Kingdom of England, the Provision for Ministers is very mean, and many others of Our said Plantations, Colonies and Factories are wholly Destitute and Unprovided of a Maintenance for Ministers, and the Publick Worship of God; and for lack of Support and Maintenance for such, many of our Loving Subjects do want the Administation of God's Word and Sacraments, and

and seem to be abandoned to Atheism and Infidelity; and also for want of Learned and Orthodox Ministers to Instruct our said Loving Subjects in the Principles of True Religion, divers Romish Priests and Jesuits are the more encouraged to pervert and draw over Our said Loving Subjects to Popish Superstition and Idolatry.

That a Maintenance for an Orthodox Clergy, and other Provision may be made for the Propagation of the Gospel in the Plantations beyond the Sea.

II. And whereas We think it our Duty, as much as in Us lies, to promote the Glory of God, by the Instruction of Our People in the Christian Religion; and that it will be highly conducive for accomplishing those Ends, that a sufficient Maintenance be provided for an Orthodox Clergy to live amongst them, and that such other Provision be made as may be necessary for the Propagation of the Gospel in those Parts.

III. And whereas We have been well assured, That if We would be Graciously pleased to erect and settle a Corporation for the receiving, managing and disposing of the Charity of Our Loving Subjects, divers Persons would be induced to extend their Charity to the Uses and Purposes aforesaid.

His Majesty Incorporates the Archbishop of Canterbury, and rable Progress in it; having sent, besides Books

[N. B. It is moreover a Standing Order of the Society, That if any Clergy-man, who offers himself for this Service, shall have a Cure, he shall, besides his other Testimonials, have the Approbation and Consent of his Diocesan, signified under his Hand and Seal.]

D INSTRU-

INSTRUCTIONS for the Clergy employ'd by the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts.

Upon their Admission by the Society.

I. THAT from the Time of their Admission they lodge not in any Publick-House; but at some Bookseller's, or in other private and Reputable Families, till they shall be otherwise accommodated by the Society.

II. That till they can have a convenient Passage, they employ their Time usefully; in reading Prayers, and Preaching, as they have Opportunity; in hearing others Read and Preach; or in such Studies as may tend to fit them for their Employment.

III. That they constantly attend the standing Committee of this Society, at St. Paul's Chapter-House, and observe their Directions.

IV. That

IV. That before their Departure, they wait upon his Grace the Lord Arch-bishop of Canterbury; their Metropolitan; and upon the Lord Bishop of London, their Diocesan; to receive their Paternal Benediction and Instructions.

Upon their going on Board the Ship designed for their Passage.

I. THAT they demean themselves not only inoffensively and prudently; but so as to become remarkable Examples of Piety and Virtue to the Ship's Company.

II. That whether they be Chaplains in the Ships, or only Passengers, they endeavour to prevail with the Captain or Commander, to have Morning and Evening Prayer said daily, as also Preaching and Catechizing every Lord's-Day.

III. That throughout their Passage, they Instruct, Exhort, Admonish, and Reprove, as they have Occasion and Opportunity, with such Seriousness and Prudence as may gain them Reputation and Authority.

Upon their Arrival in the Country whither they shall be sent.

First, With Respect to themselves.

I. THAT they always keep in their View the great Design of their Undertaking; viz. To promote the Glory of Almighty God, and the Salvation of Men, by propagating the Gospel of our Lord and Saviour.

II. That they often consider the Qualifications requisite for those who would effectually promote this Design, viz. A sound Knowledge and hearty Belief of the Christian Religion; an Apostolical Zeal temper'd with Prudence, Humility, Meekness, and Patience; a fervent Charity towards the Souls of Men; and finally that Temperance, Fortitude, and Constancy, which become good Soldiers of Jesus Christ.

III. That in order to the obtaining and preserving the said Qualifications, they do very frequently in their Retirements offer up fervent Prayers to Almighty God for his Direction and Assistance; converse much with the Holy Scriptures; seriously reflect upon their Ordination-Vows; and consider the Account which they are to render to the great Shepherd and Bishop of Souls, at the last Day.

IV. That they acquaint themselves thorowly with the Doctrine of the Church of England, as contain'd in the Articles and Homilies; its Worship and Discipline, and Rules for Behaviour of the Clergy, as contained in the Liturgy and Canons; and that they approve themselves accordingly, as genuine Missionaries from this Church.

V. That they endeavour to make themselves Masters in those Controversies, which are necessary to be understood in order to the preserving their Flock from the Attempts of such Gainfayers as are mixt among them.

VI. That in their outward Behaviour they be circumspect and unblameable, giving no Offence either in Word or Deed; that their ordinary Discourse be grave and edifying; their Apparel decent, and proper for Clergy-men; and that in their whole Conversation they be Instances and Patterns of the Christian Life.

VII. That they do not board in, or frequent Publick-houses, or lodge in Families of evil Fame; that they wholly abstain from Gaming, and all vain Pastimes; and converse not familiarly with lewd or prophane Persons, otherwise than in order to reprove, admonish, and reclaim them.

VIII. That

VIII. That in whatsoever Family they shall lodge, they persuade them to join with them in daily Prayer Morning and Evening.

IX. That they be not nice about Meats or Drinks, nor immoderately careful about their Entertainment in the Places where they shall sojourn; but contented with what Health requires, and the Place easily affords.

X. That as they be Frugal in Opposition to Luxury; so they avoid all Appearance of Covetousness, and recommend themselves according to their Abilities, by the prudent Exercise of Liberality and Charity.

XI. That they take special Care to give no Offence to the Civil Government, by intermeddling in Affairs not relating to their own Calling and Function.

XII. That avoiding all Names of Distinction, they endeavour to preserve a Christian Agreement and Union one with another, as a Body of Brethren of one and the same Church, united under the Superior Episcopal Order, and all engaged in the same great Design of Propagating the Gospel; and to this End keeping up a Brotherly Correspondence, by meeting together at certain Times, as shall be most convenient for mutual Advice and Assistance.

Secondly, *With Respect to their Parochial Cure.

I. THAT they conscientiously observe the Rules of our Liturgy in the Performance of all the Offices of their Ministry.

II. That besides the stated Service appointed for Sundays and Holy-days, they do, as far as they shall find it practicable, publickly read the daily Morning and Evening Service, and decline no fair Opportunity of Preaching to such as may be Occasionally met together from Remote and Distant Parts.

III. That they perform every Part of Divine Service with that Seriousness and Decency, that may recommend their Ministrations to their Flock, and excite a Spirit of Devotion in them.

IV. That the chief Subjects of their Sermons be the great Fundamental Principles of Christianity, and the Duties of a sober, righteous, and godly Life, as resulting from those Principles.

V. That they particularly preach against those Vices, which they shall observe to be most predominant in the Places of their Residence.

VI. That they carefully instruct the People concerning the Nature and Use of the Sacraments

ments of Baptism and the Lord's-Supper, as the peculiar Institutions of Christ, Pledges of Communion with him, and Means of deriving Grace from him.

VII. That they duly consider the Qualifications of those adult Persons, to whom they administer Baptism; and of those likewise whom they admit to the Lord's-Supper, according to the Directions of the Rubricks in our Liturgy:

VIII. That they take a special Care, to lay a good Foundation for all their other Ministrations, by Catechizing those under their Care, whether Children, or other ignorant Persons, explaining the Catechism to them in the most easie and familiar Manner.

IX. That in their instructing Heathens and Infidels, they begin with the Principles of natural Religion, appealing to their Reason and Conscience; and thence proceed to shew them the Necessity of Revelation, and the Certainty of that contained in the Holy Scriptures, by the plain and most obvious Arguments.

X. That they frequently visit their respective Parishioners; those of our own Communion, to keep them steady in the Profession and Practice of Religion, as taught in the Church of England; those that oppose us, or dissent from us, to convince and reclaim them, with a Spirit of Meekness and Gentleness.

XI.

XI. That those whose Parishes shall be of large extent, shall, as they have Opportunity and Convenience, officiate in the several Parts thereof, so that all the Inhabitants may by turns partake of their Ministrations; and that such as shall be appointed to officiate in several Places, shall reside sometimes at one, sometimes at another of those Places, as the Necessities of the People shall require.

XII. That they shall, to the best of their Judgments, distribute those small Tracts given by the Society for that Purpose, amongst such of their Parishioners as shall want them most, and appear likely to make the best Use of them; and that such useful Books, of which they have not a sufficient Number to give, they be ready to lend to those who will be most careful in reading and restoring them.

XIII. That they encourage the setting up of Schools for the teaching of Children; and particularly by the Widows of such Clergymen as shall die in those Countries, if they be found capable of that Employment.

XIV. That each of them keep a Register of his Parishioners Names, Profession of Religion, Baptism, &c. according to the Scheme annex'd N^o. I. for his own Satisfaction, and the Benefit of the People.

Thirdly, With Respect to the Society.

I. THAT each of them keep a constant and regular Correspondence with the Society, by their Secretary.

II. That they send every six Months an Account of the State of their respective Parishes, according to the Scheme annex'd, N^o II.

III. That they communicate what shall be done at the Meetings of the Clergy, when settled, and whatsoever else may concern the Society.

N^o I.

XIII. That they encourage the setting up of Schools for the teaching of Children; and particularly by the Widows of such Clergymen as shall die in that Communion, if they be found capable of that Employment.

XIV. That each of them keep a Register of the Parishioners Names, Professions of Religion, Births, or according to the Scheme annex'd N^o I. for the own Satisfaction, and the Benefit of the People.

Thirdly,

N^o. II.

Notitia Parochialis; Or, An Account to be sent Home every Six Months to the Society by each Minister, concerning the Spiritual State of their respective Parishes.

I. Number of Inhabitants.

II. No. of the Baptized.

III. No. of Adult Persons Baptized this Half Year.

IV. No. of actual Communicants of the Church of England.

V. No. of those who profess themselves of the Church of England.

VI. No. of Dissenters of all Sorts, particularly Papists.

VII. No. of Heathens and Infidels.

Instructions for Schoolmasters Employ'd by the Society, &c.

I. THAT they well consider the End for which they are employ'd by the Society, viz. the instructing and disposing Children, to believe and live as Christians.

II. In order to this End, that they teach them to read truly and distinctly, that they may be capable of reading the Holy Scriptures, and other pious and useful Books; for informing their Understandings, and regulating their Manners.

III. That they instruct them thoroughly in the Church-Catechism, teach them first to read it distinctly and exactly, then to learn it perfectly by Heart, endeavouring to make them understand the Sense and Meaning of it, by the Help of such Expositions, as the Society shall send over.

IV. That they teach them to Write a plain and legible Hand, in order to the fitting them for useful Employments; with as much Arithmetick as shall be necessary to the same Purpose.

V. That they be industrious, and give constant Attendance at proper School-Hours.

VI. That

VI. That they daily use, Morning and Evening, short and proper Prayers with their Scholars in the School, and teach them Prayers and Graces to be used by themselves at Home.

VII. That they oblige their Scholars to be constant at Church on the Lord's Day, Morning and Afternoon, and at all other times of publick Worship; that they cause them to carry their Bibles and Prayer Books with them, instructing them how to use them there, and how to demean themselves in the several parts of Worship; that they be there present with them, taking Care of their reverent and decent Behaviour, and examine them afterwards as to what they have heard and learn'd.

VIII. That when any of their Scholars are fit for it, they recommend them to the Minister of the Parish, to be publicly Catechiz'd in the Church.

IX. That they take especial Care of their Manners, both in their Schools and out of them, warning them seriously of those Vices to which Children are most liable, teaching them to abhor Lying and Falshood, and to avoid all sorts of Evil-speaking; to love Truth and Honesty; to be Modest, Gentle, Well-behav'd, Just, and Affable, and Courteous to all their Companions, respectful to their Superiours, particularly to-

PRAYERS for the Use of the Charity-Schools in America.

A Morning Prayer for the Master and Scholars.

PRaised be the Lord from the rising up of the Sun, to the going down of the same.
Thou art our God, and we will praise thee;
Thou art our God, and we will thank thee.

Thou hast made us after thine own Image;
thou daily preservest and providest for us; thou hast redeemed us by the precious Blood of thy dear Son; thou hast given us thy holy Word for our Direction, and promis'd thy holy Spirit for our Assistance; thou hast raised up to us Friends and Benefactors, who have taken care of our Education and Instruction; thou hast brought us together again this Morning to teach and to learn that which may be profitable to us.

For

For these and all thy Favours, Spiritual and Temporal, our Souls do bless and magnify thy holy Name, humbly beseeching thee to accept this our Morning Sacrifice of Praise and Thanksgiving, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

And do thou, O Lord, who hast safely brought us to the Beginning of this Day, defend us in the same by thy mighty Power; and grant that this Day we fall into no Sin, neither run into any kind of Danger, but that all our doings may be ordered by thy Governance, to do always that which is righteous in thy Sight, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Particularly, we beg thy Blessing upon our present Undertaking. Prevent us, O Lord, in all our doings with thy most gracious Favour, and further us with thy continual Help, that in these and all our Works, begun, continued, and ended in thee, we may glorify thy holy Name, and finally by thy Mercy obtain everlasting Life, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Enlighten, we pray thee, our Understandings, strengthen our Memories, sanctify our Hearts, and guide us in our Lives. Help us to learn and to practise those things which are good, that we may become serious Christians, and useful in the World, to the Glory of thy great Name, the Satisfaction of those who have so kindly provided for our Souls and Bodies, and our own present and future Well-being.

Let thy Blessings be abundantly bestow'd upon all our Friends and Benefactors, particularly on the Society Erected for the Propagation of the Gospel. Prosper thou the Work of their Hands, O Lord, prosper thou their Handy-work.

These Prayers both for them and our selves, we humbly offer up, in the Name of thy Son Jesus Christ our Redeemer, concluding in his most perfect Form of Words; Our Father, &c.

An Evening Prayer for the Master and Scholars.

A Ccept, we beseech thee, O Lord, our Evening Sacrifice of Praise and Thanksgiving for all thy Goodness and Loving-kindness to us; particularly for the Blessings of this Day; for thy gracious Protection and Preservation; for the Opportunities we have enjoy'd for the Instruction and Improvement of our Minds; for all the Comforts of this Life, and the Hope of Life everlasting, through Jesus Christ our Redeemer. Forgive, Forgive, most merciful Father, we humbly pray thee, all the Errors and Transgressions which thou hast beheld in us the Day past; and help us to express our unfeigned Sorrow for what has been amiss, by our Care to amend it.

What we know not, do thou teach us; instruct us in all the Particulars of our Duty, both towards Thee and towards Men; and give us Grace always to do those things which are good, and well-pleasing in thy Sight, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Whatsoever good Instructions have been here given this Day, grant that they may be carefully remember'd, and duly followed: and whatsoever good Desires thou hast put into any of our Hearts, grant that by the Assistance of thy Grace they may be brought to good Effect; that thy Name may have the Honour, and we, with those who are assistant to us in this Work of our Instruction, may have Comfort at the Day of Account, through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

Lighten our Darkness, we beseech thee, O Lord; and by thy great Mercy defend us from all Perils and Dangers of this Night, continuing to us the Blessings which we enjoy, and helping us to testify our Thankfulness for them, by a due Use and Improvement of them.

Bless, O Lord, we beseech thee, all our Friends and Benefactors, particularly that Society, for which we are bound in especial manner to pray. Direct and prosper all their pious Endeavours for the Propagation of thy Gospel in the World.

These Praises and Prayers we humbly offer up to thy divine Majesty, through the Mediation of thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord; in whose holy Name and Words we sum up all our Desires; Our Father, &c.

A Morning Prayer to be used daily by every Child at Home.

GLORY be to thee, O Lord, who hast preserv'd me from the Perils of the Night past, who hast refresh'd me with Sleep, and rais'd me up again to praise thy holy Name.

I humbly worship thee, O God, my heavenly Father, through Jesus Christ my Redeemer; and I do again devote my self to thee, desiring to serve thee faithfully this and all the Days of my Life.

Help me to remember thee, my Creator, in the Days of my Youth.

Preserve me from those Errors and Follies, to which the Frailty of my Age does most expose me; and keep me innocent from every great Offence.

Deliver me from the Vanity of mine own Heart, and from the Temptations of evil Company.

Incline my Heart to all that is good; that I may be modest and humble, true and just, temperate and diligent, respectful and obedient to my Superiors; that I may fear and love thee above all; that I may love my Neighbour as my self, and do to every one as I would they should do unto me.

Let thy good Providence defend me this Day from all Evil; let the Grace of thy holy Spirit continually prevent and assist me.

Bless me, I pray thee, in my Learning; and help me daily to increase in Knowledge, and Wisdom, and all Virtue.

I humbly beg thy Blessing upon all my Relations and Friends [*particularly my Father and Mother, my Brothers and Sisters, and every one in this House;] Grant to them whatsoever may be good for them in this Life, and guide them to Life everlasting.

* Let these Words be used or omitted, or changed, as occasion requires.

I humbly commit my self to thee, O Lord, in the Name of Jesus Christ my Saviour, and in the Words which he himself hath taught me; Our Father, &c.

Shew me the Way in which I should walk, whilst I am young, and grant that I may never depart from it.

Bless to me, I pray thee, whatsoever good Instructions have been given me this Day, helping me carefully to remember them, and duly to improve them; that I may be ever growing in Knowledge, and Wisdom, and Goodness.

I humbly commit my Soul and Body to thy Care this Night, begging thy gracious Protection and Blessing.

And all these Blessings which I ask for my self, I heartily desire for my Relations and Friends, and every one in this House. Let it please thee to guide us all in this Life present, and to conduct us to thy heavenly Kingdom, through Jesus Christ our only Lord and Saviour; in whose Words I conclude my Prayers, Our Father, &c.

A short Prayer for every Child, when they first come into their Seats at Church.

LORD, I am now in thy House; assist, I pray thee, and accept of my Services. Let thy holy Spirit help my Infirmities, disposing my Heart to Seriousness, Attention, and Devotion; to the Honour of thy holy Name, and the Benefit of my Soul, through Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.
